Proposal for the General Education Subcommittee (GESC)
of the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

March 2006

Voting members (9):

2 faculty from two different departments in the Division of Arts and Humanities
2 faculty from two different departments in the Division of Social Sciences
2 faculty from two different departments in the Division of Math and Natural Sciences
1 student from the Division of Arts and Humanities
1 student from the Division of Social Sciences
1 student from the Division of Math and Natural Sciences

Ex-officio (or delegate), non-voting:

Dean of Education
Director of the Center for Teaching and Learning
Chair of the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

Terms of Service:

Each member serves a two-year term. The faculty positions will be staggered so that one faculty member is elected each year. The committee will elect a chair at its first meeting each academic year.

Election of Members:

The Senate will elect members from a slate of nominations submitted by the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee.

Initial Elections:

One of the two faculty from each division will be elected for a one-year term to initialize the staggered terms of service. The chair of the UCC will convene the first meeting of the committee so it can elect a chair.

Evaluation:

The Senate will evaluate the effectiveness of the composition of the GESC four years after the initial election of members.
