

MINUTES OF THE ACADEMIC SENATE OF QUEENS COLLEGE

December 13, 2001
Kiely Hall, room 170

1. The Holder of the Chair, Nancy Hemmes, called the meeting to order at 3:47 p.m.

2. Approval of Agenda:

i. MOTION: Duly made (Engel), seconded, and passed:

"To amend the agenda, to add under 5.b., Graduate Curriculum Committee report, the proposed resolution to the Board of Trustees."

ii. MOTION: Duly made (Rothenberg), seconded, and passed:

"To amend the agenda, to add under New Business a discussion and resolution dealing with bundling of books."

iii. MOTION: Duly made (Lord), seconded, and passed:

"To amend the agenda, to include under 5.a., Undergraduate Curriculum Committee report, the minutes of November 15 and December 6, 2001."

The agenda was adopted, as amended.

3. Approval of Minutes:

MOTION: Duly made, seconded, and passed:

"To adopt the Academic Senate meeting minutes of November 8, 2001, as distributed."

4. Announcements, Administrative Reports, and Memorials:

a. The Chair announced that the Executive Committee, in response to a nomination from the Nominating Committee and the recommendation of department chairs in the Division of Education, elected Professor Sydney Schwartz to fill an opening on the Search Committee for the Dean of Education.

b. The Chair announced that included in the meeting packet was the list of the members of the Search Committee for the President of Queens College. Senators and colleagues may submit input by contacting any member of the Search Committee, sending it also to Trustee Wellington Chen, head of the Search Committee.

c. On behalf of Professor Ramsey, chair of the Policy Board on Administration, the Chair announced that the committee is considering the issue of priority registration. The categories for eligible students have grown so that in Fall, 2001, 10 per cent of all registrations were priority registrations. Donna Lipper, former Director of the Registrar's Office, had asked the Academic Senate to review this issue. Anyone who has views or data should contact Philip Ramsey at 997-3222.

d. The door prize was won by Ken Lord.

e. A memorial statement for Albert Todd will be read after the Committee Reports.

ACADEMIC SENATE MINUTES, December 13, 2001

“To amend the motion, in the first paragraph to change “University Faculty Senate” to “Queens College Academic Senate.”

Editorial corrections (Ramsey): 1. (b) First line should read, “...in discussion of their subject...”
Second line should read, “.... Matters which have....”

Motion i passed, as amended.

“THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in this time of national distress when threats to academic freedom are becoming more prevalent, the Queens College Academic Senate, along with the Council of Faculty Governance Leaders, wishes to remind the entire CUNY community of the overriding importance to the University of the preservation of academic freedom by circulating the classic AAUP definition:

“(a) Teachers are entitled to full freedom in research and in the publication of the results, subject to the adequate performance of their other academic duties; but research for pecuniary return should be based upon an understanding with the authorities of the institution.

“(b) Teachers are entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussion of their subject, but they should be careful not to introduce into their teaching controversial matters which have no relation to their subject. Limitations of academic freedom because of religious or other aims of the institution should be clearly stated in writing at the time of the appointment.

“(c) College and university teachers are citizens, members of a learned profession, and officers of an educational institution. When they speak or write as citizens, they should be free from institutional
