

The Education Unit's Vision Statement

Queens College is dedicated to preparing highly competent educational professionals for diverse urban communities who will:

- Build nurturing learning communities in which all students engage in challenging curricula.
- Involve students in the democratic process and in responding to the demands of a global society.
- Focus on consistent improvement and renewal of education in diverse urban communities through reflective practice.