Applications are due in Delaney Hall Room 125 by 5:00 PM on April 7.

Before completing your application, please read the information on the Mellon Mays Fellowship and the short biography of Dr. Benjamin Mays at <http://www.mmuf.org/pages/mays.htm> (the MMUF Website).

Each application must include six copies of the following:

- this form, signed and dated;
- a personal statement, 500 words, explaining your intellectual and personal reasons for wishing to consider a career as a scholar and teacher;
- a statement, 500 words showing how you have demonstrated or will demonstrate your commitment to the MMUF's mission and its goals of promoting racial and ethnic understanding;
- a graded sample of your academic work, either a paper or other formal assignment such as a lab report, preferably with the professor's comments, 10 pages maximum.

Applicants must also arrange to have two faculty recommendations reach Delaney Hall 125 by the application deadline of April 7. For more information please call the Africana Studies Program at 718 997-2845.

There will be an open house for prospective fellows on Wednesday, March 25, from 12:15 to 1:30 PM in the Honors Center/Temp II Room 12.
