
Ryan D. Edwards, Ph.D.

Research Consultant in Health Economics & Demography

redwards@qc.cuny.edu

(510) 484-3912

<http://qcpages.qc.cuny.edu/~redwards/>

1063 1/2 Sterling Ave

Berkeley, CA 94708

LinkedIn: <http://lnkd.in/b-8gbya>

Profile

Seasoned researcher in health economics, demography, and epidemiology with 12 years of experience in research design and analysis of secondary data

Skills

- Expert in STATA, MATLAB, and Microsoft Office; working knowledge of R
- Expert in multivariate regression analysis, panel estimation methods, causal inference techniques, and formal demographic methods
- Deep familiarity with the U.S. Health and Retirement Study, a multi-year panel dataset; frequent user of Census PUMS and CPS products, and of the National Surveys of Veterans
- Sole author of 12 peer-reviewed journal articles and joint author on 6 others
- Author of invited commentary, book chapters, and reviews
- Over 20 invited presentations of research findings, over 10 presentations at annual meetings of Population Association
- Collaborative scholar with service on two panels convened by the National Academies

Experience

Associate professor of economics with tenure	2011-2014 (on leave)
Assistant professor of economics Queens College, City University of New York	2006-2011
Postdoctoral Scholar, RAND Corporation	2004-2006
Postdoctoral Scholar, Stanford University	2002-2004
Staff Economist, Council of Economic Advisers	1998-1999

Education

Ph.D. in economics	University of California, Berkeley	2002
BA (cum laude) in public policy	Princeton University	1996

References

Ronald Lee	professor of economics and demography, UC Berkeley
Shripad Tuljapurkar	professor of biology population studies, Stanford University
Michael Grossman	CUNY distinguished professor of economics, Graduate Center, CUNY
John Devereux	professor and chair, Queens College economics department

Full CV and writing samples available at <http://qcpages.qc.cuny.edu/~redwards/>